Should a meeting be listed on calendar in advance, reminder notices may take place not less than ten or more than sixty days before meeting. Any member may waive notice of any meeting.

Section 4. Quorum. A quorum is equal to a majority of votes entitled to be cast by all members.

Section 5. Voting. At all meetings of the corporation each member under Article III, Section 1, shall have one vote, and may take part and vote in person or through electronic ballot. Voting by proxy shall not be permitted. Unless specifically provided otherwise in these Bylaws, a majority vote of those members entitled to vote present and voting shall govern.

Section 6. Action by Ballot. A Ballot may be permitted without a meeting provided the following procedures are met: Corporation must deliver a ballot to every member entitled to vote on the matter. The ballot must be in the form of a record which could include an electronic ballot or email, provided an opportunity to vote for or withhold a vote for each candidate in the case of an election; and provide an opportunity to vote for or against other proposed actions. All solicitations for votes by ballots must indicate the number of responses needed to meet the quorum, state the percentage of approvals necessary to approve each matter other than the election of directors, and specify the time by which a ballot must be received by the corporation to be counted. Approval by ballot shall be valid only when the number of votes cast equals or exceeds the quorum required to be present at a meeting.

Section 7. Rules of Order. Parliamentary procedure for the meetings and proceedings of the corporation shall be governed by the most recent edition of ROBERTS RULES OF ORDER, except as may be otherwise provided by law or these Bylaws.

ARTICLE VII OFFICERS

Section 1. Officers. The officers of the corporation are the individuals elected to serve in any combination of roles including President, a Vice President and/or President-Elect, a Secretary, a Treasurer, and a Past President. The Vice President/President-Elect, the Secretary and the Treasurer shall be elected by the membership at the Annual Meeting, or in accordance with Section VI, Section 6 for non-meeting ballots. Each elected officer shall serve their elected term of office until their successors have been duly elected and assume office. At a minimum, a nonprofit corporation shall have 2 separate officers, one responsible for the management of the corporation, who may be referred to as the "President" or by any other term used in its articles of incorporation or bylaws and another responsible for the financial affairs of the corporation, who may be referred to as the "Treasurer", One individual may not serve in the role of President and Treasurer simultaneously.

Section 2. Qualifications for Office. Any Member entitled to vote and in good standing shall be eligible for nomination and election to any elective office of the corporation.

Section 3. Nomination and Election of Officers. In accordance with the procedure specified in ARTICLE X, Section 2, the Nominating Committee shall prepare and submit to the Members entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting a ballot containing the nominees for each of the offices subject to election; or in accordance with Article VI, Section 6 for non-meeting ballots. Any person so nominated shall have consented prior to nomination.

Section 4. Term of Office. Each officer will take office immediately following Installation and shall serve the term they are elected or until a successor assumes office. Each officer will serve concurrently as a member of the Board of Directors and as a member of the Executive Committee. All officers should remain in good standing as a member through the duration of their term.

Section 5. Vacancies. A vacancy in any office due to death, resignation, removal, disqualification or otherwise, may be filled by the Board of Directors for the unexpired portion of the term.

Section 6. Removal. Any officer may be removed by a two-thirds vote of the Board of Directors whenever in its judgment the best interests of the corporation would be served thereby.

Section 7. President. The President shall chair the Board of Directors and the Executive Committee, and shall be the chief executive officer of the corporation. The President may also observe and participate as a nonvoting member ex-officio on all committees except the Nominating Committee. The President shall make all required appointments of standing and special committees. At the Annual Meeting of the corporation and at such other times as the President shall deem proper, the President shall communicate to the membership such matters and make such suggestions as may in the President's opinion tend to promote the welfare and increase the usefulness of the corporation. The President shall perform such other duties as are necessarily incident to the office of President or as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors or these Bylaws from time to time.

Section 8. Vice President and / or President-Elect. The Vice President shall serve as President-elect and shall succeed to the presidency. The Vice President shall perform the duties of the President in the event of the President's inability to serve and the Vice President shall have such other duties as may be delegated by the Board of Directors.

Section 9. Secretary. The Secretary shall provide for the proper recording of proceedings of the corporation, Board of Directors and all committees; provide for accurate membership records; provide for proper notices to members; maintain the seal of the corporation; perform all the duties customarily incident to the office of the Secretary and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to the Secretary by the President or by the Board of Directors; and may delegate any of these duties as specified by the Board of Directors to an executive director or other staff, or the Executive Director of CMSA with the concurrence of CMSA, or other designee.

Section 10. Treasurer. The Treasurer shall be responsible for all funds, accounts and securities of the corporation and the collection of all dues, and assessments, fees and charges if any, and the deposit and disbursements of all moneys in the name of the corporation in such banks, trust companies or other depositories as shall be selected by the Board of Directors; perform all the duties incident to the office of Treasurer and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to the Treasurer by the President or by the Board of Directors; and may delegate any of these duties as specified by the Board of Directors to an executive director or other staff, or the Executive Director of CMSA with the concurrence of CMSA, or other designee. The Treasurer shall report the financial condition of the corporation at all meetings of the Board of Directors and at each fiscal year, the Treasurer shall prepare an annual report which will reflect an audit or management review of a Certified Public Accountant as determined by the Board of Directors. At the expiration of the term of office, the Treasurer shall hand over to the successor in office all books, financial access, i.e., signatures cards and banking deposit stamps, and other property in the Treasurer's custody and control, or, in the absence of a successor, shall deliver such properties to the President within 30 days or as prescribed within chapter policies.

Section 11. Chapter Executive Director. The Chapter may retain an Executive Director, as a contractor or volunteer, who shall be responsible for the day to day operation of the corporation, and perform such duties and such programs and policies as may be directed by the Board of Directors. This is generally not an elected role, and therefore does not have voting rights on board issues. They may join as a member and have rights to vote on member ballots. The Executive Director or designee thereof also will perform any functions as may be delegated by the Treasurer, including signing any deeds, mortgages, contracts, or other instruments which the Board of Directors have authorized to be executed, except in cases where the signing and execution thereof shall be expressly delegated by the Board of Directors or by these Bylaws or by statute to some other officer or agent of the corporation. If required by the Board of Directors, the Executive Director shall give a bond for the faithful discharge of duties in such sum and with such surety or sureties as the Board of Directors shall determine. The Executive Director or designee thereof also will perform any functions as may be delegated by the Secretary, including maintaining the minutes of the meetings of the Board of Directors and members in one or more books provided for that purpose; seeing that all notices are duly given in accordance with the provisions of these Bylaws or as required by law: being custodian of the corporate records and of the seal of the corporation; and seeing that the seal of the corporation is affixed to all documents, the execution of which on behalf of the corporation under its seal is duly authorized in accordance with the provisions of these Bylaws.

ARTICLE VIII

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 1. Authority and Responsibility. The governing body of the corporation shall be the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors shall have the supervision, control and direction of the affairs of the corporation, its committees and any publications; shall determine its policies or changes therein; and shall actively pursue its objectives and supervise the disbursement of its funds. The Board of Directors may adopt such rules and regulations for the conduct of its business as shall be deemed advisable, and may, in the execution of the powers granted, delegate certain of its authority to the Executive Committee.

Section 2. Composition. The Board of Directors shall consist of a minimum of 3 Directors. A board of directors may consist of a combination of the following positions: President, the Vice President, President-Elect, the Secretary, the Treasurer, the Past President, and additional Directors, as needed, entitled to vote of the corporation who shall be elected as herein provided. The immediate past president shall serve a one-year term on the Board of Directors. If a term of office is not specified in the Bylaws for each position, then the term of office is one year; except for those appointed in a manner to fulfill a vacancy. A decrease in the number of directors does not shorten an incumbent director's term.

Section 3. Manner of Election and Term. The Directors subject to election at the corporation's Annual Meeting shall be elected by vote of the members entitled to vote. At the initial Annual Meeting, the directors should have staggered terms so that each year the full board does not turnover. Number of directors in each staggered term do not need to be uniform. Thereafter, additional directors will be elected to fulfill new terms or until their successors have been elected and assume office. All board of directors should remain in good standing as a member through the duration of their term.

Section 4. Reelection. No member of the Board of Directors shall serve a term of office that exceeds 5 years. Despite the expiration of a director's term, the director shall continue to serve until the director's successor is elected, appointed, or designated and until the director's successor takes office.

Section 5. Nominations. The Nominating Committee, acting in accordance with ARTICLE X, Section 2 of these Bylaws, shall present to the membership, at least thirty days before the Annual Meeting, one nomination for each seat on the Board of Directors that is vacant or expiring. Additional nominations may be made from the floor at the Annual Meeting.

Section 6. Quorum. A majority of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of the Board, provided that if less than a quorum is present at said meeting, a majority of the directors present may adjourn the meeting from time to time without further notice.

Section 7. Manner of Acting. The act of a majority of the Directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board of Directors, except where otherwise provided by these Bylaws. Voting rights of a Director shall not be assigned to another Director or exercised by proxy.

Section 8. Regular and Special Meetings. A regular meeting of the Board of Directors shall be held no less than three times during each fiscal year at such time and at such place as the Board may prescribe. Special meetings of the Board may be called by the President or at the request of any two Directors. Any or all Directors may participate in a meeting of the Board or a committee of the Board by means of conference telephone or by any means of communication by which all persons participating in the meeting are able to hear one another whether face to face or by electronic means, or read proceedings as they concurrently occur, and such participation shall constitute presence in person at the meeting.

Section 9. Notice. Notice of all Regular Meetings shall be provided to all Directors by mail, electronic mail, facsimile, personal delivery, overnight express service, or telephone not less than thirty (30) days before the meeting is held. Notice of all Special Meetings shall be provided to all Directors by mail, electronic mail, facsimile, personal delivery, overnight express service, or telephone not less than seventy-two hours before the meeting is held. If notice is given by mail, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered on the second day following the day such notice is deposited in the United States mail. If notice is given by telegram, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when the telegram is delivered to the telegraph company. Any director may waive notice of any meeting and a director's attendance at any meeting shall constitute waiver of notice of such meeting unless such attendance is for the purpose of objecting to the transaction of business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

Section 10. Action by Directors Without Meeting. Any action which may be taken at a meeting of the Board of Directors may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be received and signed by all of the Directors entitled to vote with respect to the subject matter thereof. Such written voting records shall be filed with the records. Alternatively, the directors may take any action without a meeting which they could take at any meeting of the directors, where such action is based on voting by mail or telephone call or electronic mail or any other means of electronic or telephonic transmission (including facsimile transmission), as provided in these Bylaws (including the proviso that each such director shall state, or submit information from which it can be determined, that the method of voting chosen was authorized by the director).

Section 11. Absence. Any elected officer or Director who shall have been absent from two consecutive meetings of the Board of Directors during a single administrative year shall be deemed to have resigned from the position on the Board of Directors and the vacancy shall be filled as provided by these Bylaws; provided, however, the Board of Directors may expressly excuse such absence by affirmative vote of a majority of the Board. The board should create a policy clearly expressing what are excused and unexcused absences, and timelines and process for notifications of absences.

Section 12. Vacancies. Any vacancy occurring on the Board of Directors between Annual Meetings shall be filled by the Board of Directors by a majority vote of the remaining directors in office. A Director so elected to fill a vacancy shall serve the predecessor's unexpired term. A director may resign at any time by delivering a signed notice in the form of a record to the president of the board of directors, or another executive officer. A resignation shall be effective when the notice is delivered, unless the notice specifies a later effective time.

Section 13. Removal. A director may be removed for good cause by a two-thirds vote of the Board of Directors.

Section 14. Compensation. Directors and elected officers shall not receive any salaries for their services.

Section 15. Rules of Order. Parliamentary procedure for meetings and proceedings of the Board of Directors shall be governed by the most recent edition of ROBERTS RULES OF ORDER, except as may be otherwise provided by these Bylaws.

ARTICLE IX EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Section 1. Composition, Authority and Responsibility. The Executive Committee shall consist of five members of the Board of Directors including the President as Chairman, the Vice President and/or President-Elect, the Secretary, the Treasurer and the Immediate Past President. The Executive Committee may act in the place and stead of the Board of Directors between Board meeting on all matters, except those specifically reserved to the Board by these Bylaws. Actions of the Executive Committee shall be reported to the Board of Directors for ratification by mail, electronic mail, facsimile, or at the next Board meeting.

Section 2. Quorum, Call of Meetings. A majority of the Executive Committee shall constitute a quorum at any duly called meeting of the Committee. The President shall call such meetings of the Executive Committee that business of the corporation shall require, or upon the request from any two members of the Executive Committee.

Section 3. Meeting Attendance. Members of the Executive Committee may participate in any meeting through the use any means of communication by which all directors participating may simultaneously have the opportunity to hear or read the proceedings concurrently with their occurrence.

Such participation or voting in a meeting shall constitute presence in person at the meeting for purposes of determining a quorum and for voting. Voting by mail or by telephone call or electronic mail or any other means of electronic or telephonic transmission is permissible in the same manner as for the Board of Directors under these Bylaws.

Section 4. Vacancies. Any vacancy on the Executive Committee shall be filled in the manner as provided in ARTICLE VII, Section 5. Any committee member so elected to fill a vacancy shall serve the predecessor's unexpired term.

ARTICLE X SPECIAL AND STANDING COMMITTEES

Section 1. Composition and Authority. The President, with the approval of the Board of Directors, may designate one or more special or standing committees to assist the Board of Directors in management of the corporation; provided, however, the designation of such committees and the delegation thereto of authority shall not operate to relieve the Board of Directors, or any individual director, of any responsibility imposed upon them by law.

Section 2. Nominating Committee.

- a. The President shall appoint a Nominating Committee which shall consist of five members entitled to vote not holding office, of whom not more than three shall be past presidents of the corporation but one of whom shall have served on the Nominating Committee the previous year. With the approval of the Board of Directors, the committee members shall be announced to the membership six months in advance of the Annual Meeting.
- b. At least sixty days prior to the Annual Meeting, the Nominating Committee shall invite suggestions from the membership for those offices and directorships which are vacant or about to expire, allowing thirty days for suggestions. The Nominating Committee shall then nominate candidates for the required offices and directorships of the corporation as provided in these Bylaws and report such nominations at least thirty days before the Annual Meeting. Said nominations shall be voted upon at the Annual Meeting by the Members entitled to vote as these Bylaws prescribe.

Section 3. Meeting Attendance, Meeting attendance may in person, by Telephone; or Electronic Transmissions used to communicate. Members of such committees may participate in any meeting through the use of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which all persons participating have the opportunity to hear each other or read the proceedings concurrently with their occurrence.

Such participation or voting in a meeting shall constitute presence in person at the meeting for purposes of determining a quorum and for voting. Voting by mail or by telephone call or electronic mail or any other means of electronic or telephonic transmission is permissible in the same manner as for the Board of Directors under these Bylaws.

ARTICLE XI FINANCE

Section 1. Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the corporation shall be on a fiscal year basis from January 1 to December 31.

Section 2. Contracts. The Board of Directors may authorize any officer or officers, or agent or agents of the corporation, in addition to the officers so authorized by these Bylaws, to enter into any contract or execute and deliver any instrument in the name of and on behalf of the corporation and such authority may be general or confined to specific instances.

Section 3. Checks, Drafts, Etc. All checks, drafts or other orders for the payment of money, notes or other evidence of indebtedness issued in the name of the corporation, shall be signed by such officers, agent or agents of the corporation and in such manner as shall from time to time be determined by resolution of the Board of Directors.

Section 4. Deposits. All funds of the corporation shall be deposited from time to time to the credit of the corporation in such banks, trust companies or other depositories as the Board of Directors may select.

Section 5. Gifts. The Board of Directors may accept on behalf of the corporation any contribution, gift, bequest or devise for the general purposes of for any special purpose of the corporation.

Section 6. Bonding. Trust or surety bonds shall be furnished for the President, Treasurer and such other officers of the corporation as the Board of Directors shall direct. The amount of such bonds shall be determined by the Board of Directors.

Section 7. Audit. The accounts of the corporation shall be audited or reviewed not less than annually by a Certified Public Accountant. The Certified Public Accountant shall provide a report to the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE XII BOOKS AND RECORDS

The corporation shall keep correct and complete books and records of account and shall also keep minutes of the proceedings of its Board of Directors and committees having any of the authority of the Board of Directors. The corporation shall provide such annual financial statements and/or audit to CMSA as required under the Affiliation Agreement with CMSA and policies thereunder, and to enable CMSA to carry the corporation on CMSA's group exemption notice to the Internal Revenue Service where applicable. Members may request copies of financial reports, minutes, or other organizational documents. Affiliate is responsible for retaining all organizational documents in secure a secure manner based on IRS Retention Guidelines.

ARTICLE XIII WAIVER OF NOTICE

Whenever any notice whatsoever is required to be given under the provisions of the District of Columbia Nonprofit Corporation Act or under the provisions of the Articles of Incorporation or the Bylaws of the corporation, a waiver thereof in writing signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of such notice.

ARTICLE XIV INDEMNIFICATION

The corporation shall indemnify any current or former officer, director, committee member or agent of the corporation, or any person who may have served at its request as a director or officer of another corporation, whether for profit or not for profit, to the full extent permitted by the District of Columbia Nonprofit Corporation Act against expenses actually and necessarily incurred by that person, and any related liabilities, judgments, or claims, in connection with the defense of any action, suit, or proceeding in which that person is made a party by reason of being or having been such officer, director, committee member, agent, or aforementioned corporation designee, except in relation to matters as to which that person shall be adjudged in such action, suit, or proceeding to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of a duty to the corporation. Such indemnification shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which such person may be entitled, under any bylaw, agreement, vote of the Board of Directors or members, or otherwise. The corporation shall be entitled to purchase insurance for such indemnification as determined from time to time by the Board of Directors of the corporation.

ARTICLE XV AMENDMENTS

These Bylaws may be altered, amended or repealed and new Bylaws may be adopted by a two-thirds vote of the Board of Directors at any regular meeting, special meeting, or voting by telephone call or electronic mail or any other means of electronic or telephonic transmission (including facsimile transmission), as provided in these Bylaws (including the proviso that each such director shall state, or submit information from which it can be determined, that the method of voting chosen was authorized by the director), and upon due notice of the proposed Bylaws changes.
